

Capitalize on Real-Time Payments Growth with Connectivity to Instant Payment Schemes

With Bottomline's Connectivity Services, you can give your customers secure access to global and domestic instant payments schemes like SIC IP, SEPA Inst and others, as well as new networks as they go to market.

Customers demand real-time payments for their speed and flexibility, making them an essential offering for leading banks and Financial Institutions.

Deliver on this expectation – and stay competitive – using Connectivity Services. With one singular and secure point of access to multiple schemes, you'll enable connectivity and gain one view of transactions and settlements, as well as reduce manual processes.
