4.3 Customer Duties and Responsibilities

4.3.1 Business Impact: Customer is required to give a full disclosure of the impact of a reported Incident on Customer at the time of the initial report of the Incident. This information directly impacts the initial priority ranking given by the Company to the Incident and helps the Company personnel to better allocate support resources.

4.3.2 Replication: Prior to reporting an Incident to the Support Centre, Customer is required (where possible) to replicate the Incident and reduce it to its simplest point of failure. If Support Centre receives Incidents that have not been reduced to their simplest point of failure, the Support Centre may return the Incident to the Customer for further analysis to avoid response times becoming significantly extended.

4.3.3 Minimum Required Information to Report an Incident: Prior to the Customer contacting the Support Centre to report an Incident, Customer must first assemble a step by step documented Incident summary that provides a full description of the Incident, including error messages and an accurate description of Customer activity at the time an Incident occurred.

4.3.4 Customer may also be required at the Support Centre's discretion to provide some or all of the following additional information. Failure to do so when requested may delay the progress and timely resolution of the Incident.

- (i) Test data used.
- (ii) Details of recent change activity prior to the Incident.
- (iii) Incident replication method which is proven as repeatable.
- (iv) Data sample.
- (v) Establish if the Customer system and/or Subscription Services have ever functioned correctly, and document changes that have occurred since correct function.

4.3.5 These minimum requirements are not exhaustive and may be appended to from time to time and all documentation and communications must be reported in English. This information and material is to be prepared prior to contacting the Support Centre.

4.3.6 The Company reserves the right to redirect calls failing to meet the above criteria to Customer technical personnel.

4.3.7 Customer will ensure that Customer personnel reporting Incidents to the Support Centre are reasonably trained and conversant with the Subscription Services.

5. Incident Reporting
